A wonderful modern home situated in the heart of West Wittering village just 3/4 mile from the famous Blue-flag sandy beach and providing excellent privacy from neighbouring properties.

Little Orchard is an extremely versatile and unique property offering spacious accommodation and established pretty gardens. Originally a bungalow the house underwent a first-floor extension and now provides four bedrooms, a separate study, three modern bathrooms, a utility room, a spacious open plan kitchen/family room and a large sitting room. The extension has also been cleverly designed to provide the option of annexe accommodation with a separate entrance to the staircase if desired.

Outside, the property enjoys well established and attractive front and rear gardens which are both lawned with plant and tree borders. The rear garden also consists of a detached garden studio with power, a large composite decking and patio seating perfectly positioned to take full advantage of the afternoon and evening sun provided by the property's West-facing position.

There is a private, gated driveway with parking for multiple cars and rear entrance into the garden.
