Charming and Characterful, Creel Cottage is a fantastic blend of quaint countryside and modern living in a peaceful Cottage setting. The property was extensively renovated and extended in 2005 to provide a fantastic living arrangement over the two floors and now provides a generous 1515sqft of accommodation. The property has a lovely social layout between the kitchen/breakfast and dining room which would be a great space to host family and friends.

The two-storey extension has provided a spacious, first floor principal bedroom suite, a large single garage and a side entrance into a welcoming utility/boot room/cloak room. Furthermore, a rear extension has created a cosy living room with a feature, inset wood burner and French doors which open into the established rear garden. 3 further generously proportioned bedrooms can be found on the first floor along with a clean, modern family bathroom providing ample accommodation for a growing family.

The property sits on a 0.13-acre plot in a rural, private road on the edge of Birdham. Currently there is annual payment of £155 to the Alandale Road Residents Association for the upkeep and insurance of the private road.
